

Login
Management
<<Server>>

User

The diagram consists of a large outer rectangle representing a container. Inside this container, on the left side, are two small horizontal rectangles stacked vertically, connected by a vertical line. To the right of these rectangles is a smaller rectangle labeled 'User'. This represents a component 'User' that is part of the 'Login Management' system.